THE APPOSITIVE PHRASE

An appositive is a word placed after another word to explain or identify it. The appositive phrase appears after the word it explains or identifies. It is always written as a phrase, and the word it explains is after a noun or pronoun.

ex. My uncle, who is visiting on My teacher, Miss Marshall, is very strict.

An appositive phrase consists of the appositive and its modifiers which may themselves be phrases.

ex. My uncle, with purple hair, is in the repair shop.
The boy known for his talent, played the violin in the choir.

Identifying Appositive Phrases Underline the appositive phrase in each of the following sentences.

Example: Our house, a brick bungalow, is on Oak Street.
